Sermon: “God Speaks: Job 38-41” – Pastor Ken Stoesz

This morning, we are pleased to welcome a representative from Engage Today who is working with local leaders in India, planting churches, raising up leaders and strengthening the community.

SERMON NOTES

PRAYER & PRAISE:

- Pray for our seniors@home: Nettie Dyck & Henry Dahl.
- Pray for our youth ministry as events get started this week— Pray that all the youth at EMBC would come to know, love, cherish and follow Jesus this year ahead.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Thanksgiving Dinner: October 19th, 6:00pm–8:00 pm. Come hear an update from the Kitumaini family as they celebrate their first year in Canada!

Free items downstairs: Please help yourself to the items on the table downstairs by the elevator. Any remaining items will be donated or discarded.

Our sympathies to the family & friends of Hedi Plett. Hedi Plett passed away on Saturday, September 28th. A funeral service is being planned for Thursday, October 10th at 11:00am at EMBC.

Staffing updates:

1. We are pleased to welcome Elayna Oswald as our new Admin Assistant! She began her work this week. Please pray for her and encourage her in this new role.

2. Leadership Council is recommending that Phil Kernaghan join our staff on an interim basis as we continue our search for an associate pastor. A letter outlining the rationale and details are included in a letter at the info desk. As well, a special congregational meeting will be held after the service on October 20th to answer any questions.

Thursday: 11:00am funeral service for Hedi Plett
7:00pm Youth

Sunday: 10:30am Worship Service

MISSIONS & MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT

engage
TODAY

Please pray for Engage's ministry in India. Idol worship is pervasive there, as the majority of Indians are practicing Hindu. Many indigenous missions are emerging with effective ministries to share the gospel with unreached people groups.
